

FAYETTEVILLE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PERFORMS SIDE-BY-SIDE WITH
CUMBERLAND COUNTY YOUTH ORCHESTRA

Youth Side-by-Side Concert

Saturday, March 14th | 7:30pm

Huff Concert Hall, Methodist University

The Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra will be performing their annual Youth Side-by-Side concert on Saturday, March 14th at 7:30pm in Huff Concert Hall at Methodist University. Members of the symphony will perform side-by-side with students of the Cumberland County Youth Orchestra (CCYO). This is a unique opportunity for the students of CCYO as they get to engage and perform right alongside the professional musicians of the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra.

Also featured on this concert will be a solo performance by the winner of the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra Harlan Duenow Young Artist Concerto Competition. This year's winner is 16-year old pianist Jane Zhao from Cary, NC. The runner-up for this year's competition was Alex Whitehead, an 18-year old clarinetist from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. More information on the two candidates can be found on the symphony website at www.fayettevillesymphony.org.

This concert is free admission, and all are invited to attend.

For more information, please contact:

Julia Atkins
Orchestra Personnel and Marketing Manager
Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra
P.O. Box 302, Fayetteville, NC 28302
jatkins@fayettevillesymphony.org

This project is supported by the Arts Council of Fayetteville/Cumberland County with funds from the City of Fayetteville, the County of Cumberland, and private contributors.

