

FAYETTEVILLE SYMPHONY POSTPOING JAZZ&WINE FEST TO FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 2017 DUE TO HURRICANE MATTHEW

The Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra will be postponing their Jazz&Wine Fest, originally scheduled for October 7, to Friday, April 7, 2017 due to the uncertainties of Hurricane Matthew. This is to ensure the safety of the student performers that would be driving in to perform for the event, as well as the safety of the attendees. Anyone who has already purchased tickets will receive a full refund as soon as possible. Tickets will be made available again after the holidays.

The Fayetteville Symphony would like to thank everyone for their understanding and hope everyone stays safe and dry the next couple of days.
