

FAYETTEVILLE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PRESENTS ITS SECOND ANNUAL JAZZ&WINE FEST ON FRIDAY, APRIL 7 IN FESTIVAL PARK

The Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra will be hosting its second annual Jazz&Wine Fest on Friday, April 7 from 6pm-10pm in Festival Park in Downtown Fayetteville. This event was originally scheduled for October, but due to Hurricane Matthew was rescheduled to April. Perfect for date night or friends night out, the evening will include performances by jazz bands and a cappella groups from UNC Greensboro, UNC Chapel Hill, UNC Pembroke, Methodist University and Fayetteville State University, along with various beer and wine samples, and various food trucks on site to purchase food. A general admission ticket will get you the above as well as a souvenir glass. Attendees may also purchase the VIP Package which includes a separate beer and wine service, appetizers from Carrabba's Italian Grill, and a seat in the reserved seating section of the park close to the performances of the evening. VIP Packages are limited to 150. Wine and beer for the evening will be provided by Healy Wholesale Co. Inc.

General Admission is $25 before the day of the event (general admission will increase to $30 the day-of). Military is $20 and Non-Drinking is $10. The VIP Package is $45 per-person. This event is rain or shine, and refunds are not available.

The Jazz&Wine Fest is sponsored by: Fayetteville State University, Hutchens Law Firm, Valley Radiology, Carolina Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery Center, Coldwell Banker Advantage, TRP CPA, Select Bank & Trust, AAA All American Associates in Family Medicine, The Richardson Firm Trial Attorneys, M&H Auto, Mike and Debbie Steadman, and King Party Rentals.
