

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE | MARCH 13, 2018

FAYETTEVILLE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA TO HOST JAZZ FEST ON APRIL 6 IN FESTIVAL PARK

The Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra will be hosting their annual Jazz Fest on Friday, April 6th from 6pm-10pm in Festival Park in Downtown Fayetteville. This casual and fun event will include performances by jazz bands and a cappella groups from across the state of North Carolina. The jazz bands performing include Fayetteville State University, FTCC, Methodist University, and UNC Pembroke. The a cappella groups performing include Elon's Twisted Measure, NC State's Grains of Time, UNC Chapel Hill's Loreleis, and Wake Forest's Innuendo.

General Admission includes admission into the park, along with beer and wine. Various food trucks will be on site to purchase food. A VIP Package is also available (limited to 150 people), which includes a separate beer and wine service, snacks, and a seating in a reserved section of the park close to the performances. VIP is adult only.

Tickets are $25 for Advanced General Admission, $20 for Military, $10 for Non-Drinking, and $45 for the VIP Package. General Admission, Military, and Non-Drinking tickets go up $5 the day of the event.

Visit www.fayettevillesymphony.org/events to purchase tickets.

This event is sponsored by: Fayetteville State University, Brown & Associates Investment Services, Carolina Comfort Air Inc., Coldwell Banker Advantage, Eben Concepts Employee Benefits, ForeverLawn, H&H Homes, Hutchens Law Firm, John Malzone Marketing, Inc., Select Bank & Trust, and Valley Radiology.

For more information, please contact:
Julia Atkins, Director of Artistic Operations and Marketing Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra
jatkins@fayettevillesymphony.org | (910)433-4690
www.fayettevillesymphony.org

The Fayetteville Observer
fayobserver.com

###